

Resurrection Morn

VERSE I

They placed Him in a borrowed tomb, at the ending of that day.
They watched the soldiers roll the stone, then they sadly walked away.
Suddenly within their broken hearts, echoed the words they heard Him say.
Don't weep for me; I'll live again on resurrection morn.

CHORUS

Resurrection morn, He arose to set the captive free.
Resurrection morn, Jesus won the victory.
At the breaking of the dawn, they went running to the tomb
but He was gone. Mary cried and said,
My Savior lives on resurrection morn.

VERSE II

He walked along beside of them, but they did not believe.
He sat with them and broke the bread, and then their eyes were made to see.
As they watched Him taken from their sight, behold two men robed in white said, Like He ascends, He'll come again, on resurrection morn.

REPEAT CHORUS, then:

Mary cried and said, My Savior lives on Resurrection Morn.
Resurrection morn.....
